

CUT AND DRIED.

The Republicans Select Township Delegates, Nominate a Candidate for Constable and Choose Five Committeemen

In response to a call of the republican county central committee the members of the g. o. p., of Sedalia township convened at the Court House in the criminal court room, for the purpose of selecting thirty-four delegates to a county convention, which will meet Monday to nominate candidates for the various county offices; to nominate a candidate for constable for Sedalia township, and also to select four members of the central committee.

There was a fair attendance and it was unusually orderly for a republican meeting, although but little enthusiasm was manifested. They were seemingly imbued with the idea that they were preparing to nominate men for certain defeat.

H. T. Williams, chairman of the county committee, called the meeting to order.

P. D. Hastain was chosen chairman without opposition, and Mint Johns was treated likewise for secretary.

On motion the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on order of business: I. B. Anderson, J. J. Kinney and Dr. Dunlap.

The committee reported the order of business to be the division into wards and selection of delegates apportioned among the wards as follows: First Ward, 9 delegates; Second ward, 8; Third ward, 8; Fourth ward, 9, and that each ward hand in the name of a central committee man, and one from the township at large. The third item on the order of business was the election of candidates for constable.

The house went back on the committee's report and the constable and order of business was first taken up. Chas. Hoffman placed in nomination, Matthew Meyer.

Mr. McAlister placed James Gossage before the convention.

T. B. Young nominated James R. bb.

Mr. Keene nominated Frank Kell.

Mr. Mason nominated Geo. Eads.

Mr. McKenzie nominated Walter S. Jackson.

There being no more available republicans in the townships, nominations closed.

After the first ballot it was decided to drop the candidate having the lowest number of votes, and soon until a choice was made.

FIRST BALLOT
Gossage	216
Jackson	63
Kell	21

On motion, the nomination of James Gossage was made unanimous.

Mr. Gossage was called for and the chairman introduced him as the "man whom the democrats had turned out of office," but neglected to add also, the "man whom the democrats would defeat in November."

The following are the delegates selected to the county convention, and a committeeman from each ward:

First Ward—W. Ilgenfritz, T. B. Young, C. Blodoe, Thos. Ireland, P. H. Sangree, Dr. Dressel, J. J. Kinney, Wm. O. Dunlap, Chas. Wentzelman.

Committeeman—Jno. J. Kinney. Second Ward—Geo. C. Deekman, W. H. Mason, Thos. Carter, J. S. Bosserman, J. M. West, Jas. Franklin, Chas. Ramsey.

Committeeman—W. H. Mason. Third Ward—Charles Hoffman, T. B. Anderson, M. Meyers, James Ramsey, J. T. Williams, A. J. Hall, J. T. Mayfield, C. H. Rockwell.

Committeeman—David Ramsey. Fourth Ward—P. D. Hastain, A. W. McKenzie, S. F. Bailey, G. L. Faulhaber, W. S. Jackson, C. Newkirk, R. H. Moses, J. D. Crawford, G. W. Burr.

Committeeman—P. D. Hastain. On motion of W. T. Williams, Judge Jno. Baker was selected as the committeeman for the territory outside of the city.

Judge Baker was also selected as a delegate from that territory, and thus ended the first act.

NOTES.

—There were a number of democrats present to see the fun.

—Constable Rumsey was there with both eyes on the sheriff's office.

—It was a pretty fair assemblage, but the enthusiasm was conspicuously absent.

—The republicans did considerable whistling last night to keep up their courage.

—The republicans can't forget their old tricks. There were only 260 persons in the house, but they managed to cast 333 ballots.

—The chairman stated that the democratic party was dead, but did not know it. The republicans will find it a lively corpse in November.

—Capt. Kinney moved that if the candidates for constable had no friends to place them in nomination, they be allowed to nominate themselves.

—Mr. Hastain thought his election to the chairmanship the butt end of a joke. It was the opinion of democrats that the whole thing was a joke.

—There were very few colored voters in the audience last night. The colored troops are not fighting as nobly for republican principles as in days of yore.

—All of the Wards except the first reported the names of delegates in ten minutes. In the first ward there were too many statesmen. There were thirty-six nominations and each man voted for himself. It took that ward just an hour to complete its arduous work.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

Miss Laura Johns, of Decatur, Ill., has been awarded a prize of $25 for the best design for a seal for the Illinois Woman's Exposition Board.

—The Salvation Army intends to show at the Exposition in a complete manner its whole scheme of moral and social reform.

—William Saunders, executive exposition commissioner for Canada, says that a large and excellent exhibit from the Dominion is assured. It will be especially notable in the lines of agriculture, dairying, minerals and manufactures.

—The principal commercial organizations of New Orleans have united in a petition to the state legislature of Louisiana, which assembles this month to make a World's fair appropriation of $50,000. A bill making such appropriation has been drafted.

—Italy has finally decided to take part officially in the Exposition, and has entrusted the management of participation to the various chambers of commerce in the principal Italian cities. The government will encourage an extensive exhibition of Italian products and will transport all exhibits to New York in one of its war ships.

—Helena, Montana, will send to the Exposition a meteor, discovered near that city. It is composed of nickel and magnetic iron, and is in two pieces of ninety and seventy pounds respectively. It is reported that when found these pieces were in a hole in the ground large enough to contain a house, from which fact it is inferred that the meteor exploded when it struck the earth.

The liberation of carrier pigeons and the keeping of a record of their flight will be an interesting feature of the live stock exhibit at the Exposition. A number of breeders of pigeons will exhibit birds, and they are now making arrangements for the proposed contests. Geo. W. Child, of Philadelphia, and several others have offered prizes for the winners in the contests. The speed record now is 325 miles in 325 minutes.

—From Holland an offer has been made to the Holland Society of New York and the St. Nicholas Society of Brooklyn to construct and present to them an exact reproduction of the Half Moon, the ship in which Henry Hudson discovered and explored the river which bears his name. The societies named have accepted the offer and are planning to fit up the ship as a club house and to take it to Chicago both to be exhibited and to be occupied by their members during the Exposition.

Philadelphia's contribution to the Pennsylvania exhibit at the Fair will include a number of articles of great historic interest. Among them are the desk and chairs used in the Continental Congress, and the celebrated portraits of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. In the Art exhibit, which promises to be large, will appear the very valuable painting: "The Festival of the Brides of Venice," by Giacomo Giacomelli, and a mosaic picture, representing the discovery of the remains of St. Marcus, the patron saint of Venice. The latter contains more than a million pieces and required in its making seven years of patient work.

"MRS. BROWN" RETURNS.

"Mrs Brown" Did Not Materialize—a Scoundrel's Victim.

Sometime ago it will be remembered that a sensation was created in this city by the disappearance of Editor Ed. D. Crawford and as every effort made to find him proved to be without avail, it was at last believed that he had gone to be with a Miss Kate Reese who had been employed as a type setter in his office and with whom his name had before been coupled.

Miss Reese was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Reese, highly respected and well known residents of Dresden, Missouri, and until her name was connected with that of Crawford, Miss Kate herself was entirely ABOVE REPROACH and very popular with everybody in Dresden, as well as with many who had made her acquaintance in this city.

A short time previous to Crawford's disappearance, he reported that Miss Reese had gone to St. Louis where she had married a man NAMED ED BROWN and that she had met him while visiting relatives in south-western part of this state.

Nobody here had ever heard of the man Brown and after Crawford so mysteriously left, it was at once concluded that he and his former employee had gone together and that Crawford proposed to personate Brown.

Letters after a time came from "Mrs. Brown" and she and her husband were said to be in New York.

She was written to of the stories concerning her, but instead of "Mr Brown" showing up here and as any man ought to have done, Brown still remained a myth and the people still believed that Crawford was with her instead of "Brown."

Friday evening "Mrs. Brown" arrived in this city and went to her home in Dresden where yesterday an attempt was made to interview her, but without success.

It is said that her parents' virtually admitted their belief that Crawford had been guilty of this child's ruin and their sorrow was almost beyond control.

There is no doubt but that Crawford is guilty and while his victim was also guilty, yet the blame is his rather than hers. Not only was he married to an estimable lady who by his deed was made to bear sorrow unbearable, but he was also

A CHURCH MEMBER,

A Sunday school teacher, a member of the I. O. O. F. and generally posed before the public as a paragon of morality. He deserves even more of censure which he has received, and for his victim, let us trust that her sin may in a measure be atoned for and her future conduct give no cause for censure. Her parents deserve and are receiving sympathy from everybody acquainted with the family, and there is no doubt that under the circumstances much allowance will be made for Miss Reese herself, she being completely under Crawford's influence and being directed by him.

SOME KIND OF A FOOL.

Washington Post.

A good story is told of Dr. Irving C. Ross, whose practice as alienist and neurologist brings him in contact with many queer and nervous people.

Some time since, about the time the Lafayette statue was completed, the doctor was consulted by a wealthy retired business man stopping at one of the uptown hotels. The patient expressed great alarm about his mental condition and believing himself going crazy. He had just come from abroad, where he had suffered from insomnia while staying in Nice, and the only way that he could procure sleep was to walk every night to the end of the promenade and there touch a certain cactus with his walking stick. This morbid impulse followed him to Washington, and became so fixed that unless he touched the lamp-post in front of the statue at the south east corner of Lafayette square sleep was impossible. He had gone to bed time and again, but was obliged to get up, dress himself, and walk to this particular lamp-post, which he had to touch in order to ease his mental condition.

In his anxiety to get well the victim of this strange delusion said: "Doctor, if you will cure me I'll not only pay you your fee but give you $500 besides." An appropriate prescription, with directions, was given, and the patient was asked to call again in ten days.

In the mean time, the city authorities having decided that the lamp post in question obstructed the view of the statue, it was accordingly removed, and, of course, was no longer an external object that could act on the senses.

A few days after this circumstance the patient returned to the doctor's office, as directed, and with a sheepish look, said: "Doctor, here is your check; you've not only cured me, but you've convinced me that I was a damned fool besides."

The doctor above referred to is a brother of Sam and Frank Reese of Sedalia, also of Mrs. E. W. Stevens.

MORE STREET RAILWAY.

The Kansas City Star in gossiping of Mr. W. E. Sterne, of Topeka, among other things says: "Mr. Sterne has just returned from Sedalia, where he and D. C. Metaker, the famous ex-mayor of Topeka have a lot of money invested. They own the street car lines there and in a few months will equip the three miles now operated by horse power with electricity; then Sedalia will have twelve miles of electric street railway."

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Messrs. Sangree & Lamm, attorneys for Charles E. Messerly, late yesterday evening, commenced a suit for damages against G. W. Ferrell for the assault made upon his person, reciting that bones were broken, his face bruised, etc. The damages prayed for are $10,000 and will be heard by the circuit court of Pettis county.
